

RESOLVE

Monthly Overview

APRIL 24 - MAY 15

SERIES: TENSIONS

There are some things about the Christian life that aren't black or white. We may often feel like we're facing tensions, and we want answers. But sometimes, tension is a good thing. The answer is both, and we need to learn how to live in the in-between.

WEEK 1: MAY 1

Should I hang out with Christians or Non-Christians? Yes. We should surround ourselves with healthy community, while also engaging with a broken world. The tension is, to be in the world, not of it. Either extreme is missing the mark.

At Home Discussion:

Parents, tell your kid about a time you faced the tension of being in the world, but not of it. Be honest & explain any regrets and/or victories you faced.

WEEK 2: MAY 8

Is God in control or am I in control? Yes. God has a plan, but you have a role to play. He makes all things good, provides, and protects. But you have free will. You have a choice. Walk in obedience, and he will guide you where you need to go.

At Home Discussion:

Parents, tell you student about a time where you realized that God was in control. Also, share of a decision that you made, good or bad, that altered the direction of your life.

WEEK 3: MAY 15

Should I be relevant or holy? Yes. There is a way to appreciate and engage in culture, while remaining pure in heart and set apart.

At Home Discussion:

Parents, discuss some ways that you create healthy boundaries to avoid temptation in your own life. Encourage them to develop some of their own.
